

First 9-Year-Old To Bowl A Perfect Game

A 9-year-old girl in Florida got a perfect bowling score - 300. Hannah is now the youngest person in the USA to ever bowl a perfect game.

Hannah first started bowling when she was in kindergarten. She was at a classmate's birthday party.

Hannah liked bowling, so she started going to the bowling alley every week. She joined a bowling league, too.

She got her perfect score when she was bowling with her team.

"After about seven strikes, I knew it was a possibility," Hannah said.

Hannah's mom was watching. Hannah started racking up strikes and everybody at the bowling alley started watching, too.

Hannah's mom knew Hannah was nervous. Hannah was actually shaking!

Then Hannah nailed the final strike. Everyone in the bowling alley cheered and clapped for her. Hannah said it was a "magical" moment.

Hannah is in the record books! Way to go Hannah!

Have you ever bowled?
What was your best score?