

‘Slightly Haunted’ House For Sale

This house is by all accounts quite lovely. It has 4 bedrooms and is in a nice neighborhood. It is reasonably priced and is close to good schools. That is, if you don't mind the fact that the place is ‘slightly haunted’.

In several online ads, owner Gregory Leeson includes the following description of his home:

Tall trees, hardwood floors, quiet neighborhood, terrifying ghost, park & playground, good schools and plenty parking.

That's right, a terrifying ghost! Apparently this ghost stares at you while you're alone in the bathroom! YIKES!

At least the owner is being honest. Good luck to Gregory selling his ‘slightly haunted’ home!
