

Dog Robs Store

Dogs are usually thought of as man's best friend. But sometimes they can go bad and turn to a life of crime.

A store was surprised when they noticed that they had been robbed. The manager noticed that pig ears, beef bones, dog food and dog treats were missing. The store has security cameras, so the manager went to see who had robbed them.

As it turns out, it wasn't a person, it was a shoplifting dog. The dog's name is Cato. He is a loveable husky.

Cato would sit outside and wait for someone to open the door. Then he would run inside steal a pack of dog bones and then run out. Cato took his stolen snacks behind a nearby car wash. He buried the food in holes he dug.
